

BEAUTIFUL HAIR—A CLEAN, COOL SCALP

Use Parisian Sage. It Makes the Hair Soft, Wavy, Abundant—Cleanses and Invigorates the Scalp.

If your hair is anything short of perfect, if it is losing color, too dry, brittle, thin, or if the scalp burns and itches, immediately begin the use of Parisian Sage. The first application removes dandruff, cools and invigorates the scalp, and beautifies the hair until it is gloriously radiant. Parisian Sage keeps the hair needs and does not injure either the hair or scalp. It contains the exact elements needed to make the hair soft, wavy, glossy, and to make it grow thick and beautiful. It is delicately perfumed—no sticky or greasy. Sold in all drug and toilet stores. Parisian Sage acts instantly—one application stops the head from itching and freshens up the hair. Use it daily for a week and you will be surprised and delighted. Parisian Sage is one of the quickest-acting hair tonics known. Everyone needs it.

Who wants a ROUND STEAM RADIATOR, about two feet in diameter and three feet high. Will be sold cheap if applied for at once.

THE WAUREGAN HOUSE

The Parker-Davenport Co., Proprietors.

As required by the "By-Laws," the annual meeting of The Norwich Board of Trade is called to meet in the rooms of the Board, Shannon Building, Tuesday, January 13th, at 4 o'clock p. m.

No business will be done at that meeting, but an adjournment will be taken to the 27th of January, when the election of officers and other important business will be transacted.

J. C. MACPHERSON, Pres.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP.

Miss Kathryn Sullivan of Broadway School Wins Art School Scholarship.

The scholarship offered by the Norwich Art school to pupils of the senior class at Broadway school was this year awarded Miss Kathryn Sullivan. The scholarship entitles Miss Sullivan to two terms in the Saturday morning class at the Art school.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus T. Sullivan of Slater avenue.

JEWISH FARMERS ORGANIZE.

Meeting Held in Lisbon Town Hall—Vote to Have New York Man Come.

The second meeting of the Jewish Farmers was held in the Lisbon town hall Sunday, Jan. 11. The following temporary officers were elected: Philip Goldstein, president; Benjie Goldstein, secretary; Mrs. Rosenfeld, treasurer. It was voted to send for Mr. Pincus of New York, an organizer of the Federation of Jewish Farmers of America. About 20 Jewish farmers were present from Lisbon, Preston, Versailles and Baltic.

The next meeting will be held next Sunday afternoon.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Hap Ward's Pinafore Kiddies.

Hap Ward's Pinafore Kiddies, 30 in number, furnish the entertainment at the Auditorium during the first half of the week in the tabloid presentation of H. M. Pinafore. There were big houses at Monday's show and the Kiddies made a decided hit. The scene is the quarterdeck of H. M. S. Pinafore and the number is in two acts. There are 22 musical numbers and soloists and chorus exhibit fine voices, winning well deserved expressions of approval. Jess Spitzer as Tom Tucker, boatsteward, makes a fine impression and is especially appreciated in his rendering of "O My Heart." Master Nelson pleases in the part of Mr. Joseph Porter, K. C. B. M. Rudwick is well up to the character of Captain Corcoran and Jerome Tobin and Jimmy Wolfer furnish entertaining comedy as Ralph Backstraw and Dick Deadeys. Babe Smith as Josephine exhibits a nice voice and pleases with her solos. Little Buttercup is played by Aida Yogelin.

Men's League Met.

The regular monthly meeting of the Men's League of the Second Congregational church held Monday evening was devoted to the transaction of business of a routine nature and plans for future activities were discussed.

LIKE POISON IS THE GAS OF INDIGESTION

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil Clears Gas Out Quickly.

Thousands of distressed persons will go back to using castor oil now that it is tasteless. There is nothing like Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil to clear out the "inner man." It is a relief for the pain and bloating of indigestion. Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is a new and remarkable discovery. The nauseous taste and smell are taken out, but nothing else. It's all of the oil, but none of the taste, and so well purified that it acts better, without gripping, and does not irritate the stomach. Children take it readily.

Women and workers indoors find Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil a quick relief from the distress of poor digestion, and it is a perfect laxative. Kellogg's is not mixed or flavored, just a true, tasteless, castor oil.

Ask for Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil at any drug store. Not sold in bulk, but in 25c or 50c bottles, trademarked with a green castor leaf bearing the signature, Kellogg's. Made only by Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., Buffalo, N. Y., oil refiners.

CASES IN COMMON PLEAS COURT

Demurrer Argued in $1,000 Suit Against the City—Foreclose on Norwich Town Property—Temporary Injunction Against Julius Wuttkey Serving as Bartender.

There was a session of the court of common pleas here on Monday at which Judge C. B. Waller presided and the first matter was the argument of a demurrer in the case of Elizabeth E. Keating vs. the City of Norwich. After the arguments the judge took the papers. Attorney John H. Barnes appeared for the plaintiff and City Attorney Joseph T. Fanning for the city. Last February the suit was brought against the city by this plaintiff for $1,000 damages for a claim for injuries received in a fall on the sidewalk in front of the former residence of Dr. W. J. Hamford on Broadway. The claim was that she fell on the icy sidewalk on Feb. 4, 1913, spraining her right arm, suffering injury to her nervous system and being compelled to expend considerable sums in doctor's fees, while she was prevented from working a long time. On the part of the city Attorney Fanning demurred on the ground that there was no proper allegation of the city's negligence made in the complaint and also that it is not alleged in the complaint that notice was given to the city of the defective sidewalk. This is the demurrer that was argued. There have been several attempts made by the plaintiff to get a settlement but the parties were never able to agree upon an amount satisfactory to both sides, so that suit was brought. Judgment by default was granted in the case of Rogers & Hubbard Co. vs.

AMATEUR JOURNALISTS ON THEIR THIRD PAPER

Norwich Amateur Press Club Has Busy Membership of Over Fifteen Academy Boys.

At the Norwich Free Academy a new fraternal society has been organized. The Norwich Amateur Press club. It was organized early last fall by a very modest beginning, but now has a membership of over fifteen boys, with one honorary member, from all classes of the school. The club was originally intended to be an organization solely of those interested in amateur journalism and printing, but the members have decided to include in the club all those who are interested in press clubs of the United States, known as the United Amateur Press association. The members of the local club in pairs are publishing papers of their own. Two of these papers have already made their appearance. The Bomb, edited and published by Benjamin Morgan and Sidney H. Whipple, '15. The Flyer, by George Cook, '15, and Harwood Dunbar, '17, is now in the press. The club as a whole is now publishing a good sized official organ, The Norwich Amateur, 2x11, 8 pages, of the Academy Press. The excellence of this paper speaks well for the club and its official editors, Harry A. Covey, '17, and Raymond Gregson, assistant. The Press club has just adopted an official seal, the design for which was drawn by J. Raymond Gregson, '17. The same design will also be used for club pins which will soon make their appearance. Perhaps the great success of the club is due to its enterprising officers, C. Benjamin Morgan, president; Raymond P. Williams, '15, vice president; Sidney H. Whipple, '15, secretary and treasurer; Harry A. Covey, '17, official editor, and J. Raymond Gregson, '17, assistant official editor. The Norwich Amateur Press club is an Academy fraternity that profitably combines both business and pleasure.

WASHED UP ON THE COAST OF IRELAND.

Bottle Found Containing Message By Five Exercises.

After floating about in the Atlantic from the 15th of April, 1912, until the 14th of December, last, a year and nine months, a bottle containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written a message from a Nautilus passenger on the Titanic when that great ship foundered, was picked up on the beach at Portmagee harbor, Ireland, according to The Kerryman, an Irish newspaper published at Tralee. In the Dec. 20th issue of the Kerryman is the following letter from Portmagee, Ireland: "Belevue House, Portmagee, 15th Dec. 1913. Sir: As I was on my beach on last Sunday 14th instant, I picked up a bottle, containing a scrap of paper, on which was written